1

I Promise...

When you say you will do something, that is a promise.

Duty to God means

Put God first. Do what you know God wants you to do.

And my country means

Do what you can for your country. Be proud that you are an American.

To help other people means

Do things for others that would please them.

Obey the Law of the Pack means

Be a good Cub Scout. Be proud that you are one.

2

The Cub Scout follows Akela (say Ah-KAY-la).

Akela is a good leader.

Your mother or father is Akela.

In the pack, your Cubmaster is Akela.

Your den leader is Akela.

At school, your teacher is Akela.

The Cub Scout helps the pack go.

Come to all the meetings. Do what you can to help.

Think of others in the pack.

The pack helps the Cub Scout grow.

You can have fun when you are a part of the pack.

Learn things from others. Do things with them.

The Cub Scout gives goodwill.

Smile. Be happy. Do things that make others happy.

They don't have to be big things. Little things help, too.

The Webelos Arrow of Light is another secret. It points the right way to go every day of the week.

3

Being loyal means that you will keep the Cub Scout Promise.

The two fingers stand for two parts of the Promise — “to help other people” and “to obey.” They look like a wolf's ears ready to listen to Akela.

Make the sign with your right hand and with your arm held straight up.

4

5

Here's how to shake hands with another Cub Scout. Hold out your right hand just as you always do to shake hands. Put your first two fingers along the inside of the other boy's wrist. This means that you help and that you obey the Law of the Pack.

Do Your BEST - It means—

When you play a game, do your best to help your team win.

When you study in school, do your best to learn from your teacher.

When you help at home, do your best to help your family. Whatever you do, do your best.

8

Salute with your right hand. Hold your fingers as you do for the Cub Scout sign. Keep the two straight fingers close together. Touch the tips of those fingers to your cap. If you are not wearing a cap, touch your eyebrow.

A salute is a way to show respect to your leaders. It shows that you look up to them and respect them. We salute the flag to show respect to our country.
